REHABCARE EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FREESTANDING HOSPITALS ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION

ST. LOUIS, MO, September 19, 2007—RehabCare Group, Inc. (NYSE: RHB) has announced that Tom E. Davis, Executive Vice President, Freestanding Hospital Operations, will resign from the company, effective October 31, to pursue an entrepreneurial venture outside of the healthcare industry.

In making the announcement, John H. Short, Ph.D., RehabCare President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "We regret Tom's departure from our organization. In his 10 years with RehabCare, Tom has provided exemplary leadership, guidance and expertise in building essential elements to our continuum of care."

The Company is beginning a nationwide search for a successor. In the interim, Dr. Short has appointed Janet L. Nicoll, RehabCare Vice President of Performance Management and former Chief Operating Officer of MeadowBrook Healthcare, along with Kurt J. Schultz, who joined the Company in August as Vice President of Finance, Freestanding Hospitals, to provide operational direction and oversight for the division until a new executive-level leader is designated. Nicoll will report to Dr. Short on a temporary basis. Schultz will continue to report to Jay Shreiner, RehabCare Chief Financial Officer.

Celebrating its 25th anniversary, RehabCare (www.rehabcare.com) is a leading national provider of physical rehabilitation services in conjunction with nearly 1,300 hospitals and skilled nursing facilities (SNFs) in 43 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. The company also owns and/or operates freestanding rehabilitation and long-term acute care hospitals.
